Articles Prohibited - Items such as toy guns, water pistols, baseballs and radios are generally considered undesirable and may be confiscated. Electronic devices (e.g. CD walkmans, cell phones and ipods) are not allowed to be used at school or school functions. These items may be confiscated and returned at the end of the day, with the student informed to leave them at home in the future. Items that the administration considers to be dangerous or inappropriate for a student to have in their possession will only be returned to parents at their request.

Have a great weekend!
