A “Valentine’s Dance” will take place on Friday, February 13th for students in grades 5-8, from 6:30 to 9 p.m. A sign up sheet will be available in Ms. Z’s room for those who wish to invite students from other schools. Guest students must be signed up by Thursday, February 12th at 9 a.m. so Mrs. O’Brien can approve them prior to the dance. The cost is $3 per person.

Note: In lieu of a “Valentine’s Day” party on Friday, February 13th, students will participate the next Friday in fun afternoon activities on Friday, February 20th. Activities will be followed by light refreshments in the gym at the end of the school day. We will be asking room mothers to arrange for some simple refreshments, probably cookies & hot cocoa!

For summer camp and scholarship info, please contact Allison May. Grants are available to any Franklin County child (through the Chancey B. Warner Endowment Fund) whose family income meets the Warner Home’s financial eligibility requirements. Grants are available for activities such as: lessons, equipment, workshops/clinics, extracurricular clubs, and musical instruments (preferably used, not a rental). The Chauncey B. Warner Campership Scholarship application is due on or before April 1, 2009. Scholarships are awarded on a first-come, first-serve basis. The application is short and simple, and is accepted on a rolling basis. Please contact Allison May for more details.

Have a great weekend!
